BAG OF TOYS FUSE SURF, SAND & SUMMER IN THEIR NEW RELEASE "ACCESS 10"

Wilmington, NC band writes new CD inspired by life on the NC coast

California native and acoustic surf rock favorites Bag of Toys, are proud to announce the release of their third full-length studio album, Access 10 on June 21, 2011. This tight, ten track album is stuffed full of upbeat rhythms, head-bobbing grooves and fun backyard party anthems. Access 10 was mixed by L.A. native Todd Burke (Jack Johnson, Ben Harper, No Doubt) and mastered by San Francisco's own John Cuniberti (Dave Matthews, The Grateful Dead, Aerosmith). Access 10 not only maintains the unique acoustic vibe that helped make Bag of Toys one of the top unsigned acoustic acts around, but also offers some new sonic twists including the ukulele, more electric guitar and a crap load of fun.

Bag of Toys has amassed more than 1.2 million streaming song plays online and has had their original music licensed for use on a national Microsoft commercial, an episode of "Bones" on the Fox network, two Universal Pictures movies as well as numerous surfing DVDs and internet videos.

The band has sold more than 15,000 copies of their albums across the globe and has delighted fans with hundreds of successful live shows throughout the western and southeastern United States. They have also had the distinction to share the stage with bands like Fishbone, Pato Banton & Sean Kingston (to name a few).
